Now Trending Many know about the romantic story of the famous actor, zara Jia and Hafiz Adam, who just tied the engagement rope in October. Despite a new number of months of engagement, Hafiz admitted that their relationship was in conflict and was in a rather difficult phase. Recently, the couple's relationship status finally responded when Hafeez opened his mouth, confirming his relationship with zara Jia has now ended since last November. There is no understanding through the Daily News report, the couple said during their engagement period unexpectedly with heavy testing, and explained their relationship had been disconnected not due to the presence of a third party. According to Hafeez, he and zara agreed to settle the relationship and broke up well and are not related to the fights. Last Friday we talked via the WhatsApp app and agreed to resolve questions about our relationship today. I'm saying there's no more understanding in this long-standing relationship. There's no connection between us. I'm trying to avoid meeting him telling a story, Hafeez says now they're more comfortable not being joined together in the same drama because they want space for themselves. For some time and in the near future I tried to avoid meeting him. I also do not want this moment to force us to face any pressure from outside parties. I believe that everyone needs a room to deal with any feeling that is meant. We do not know, once this news is revealed, threats and pressure can suddenly gather. Hafiz added that he also prayed for zara and hoped that fans understood their current situation and continued to support their careers in the art industry.
